ORDER:

In their proceedings first cited, the Government ordered that when the head office of a firm was licensed under the Madras Foodgrains Control Order, its branches should also be licensed separately; if they maintained separate profit and loss accounts and that where the accounts of such branches were incorporated with those of the head office, there was no need for separate licenses. The matter has been reviewed and the Board of Revenue (Civil Supplies) has reported in its reference cited that the orders issued in the G.O. Cited may be so amended as to make provision for the issue of a separate licence or an exemption order being obtained for each such branch. The Government accept the Board's recommendation. The appended notification will be published in the Fort St. George Gazette.
